Gracious suburban living — 25 minutes from downtown San Francisco!

Kent Woodlands, 800 acres of Marin County's finest property, offers a matchless climate, free from wind and fog. Bordered on two sides by the 10,500-acre Marin County Municipal Water District, Kent Woodlands will forever maintain its secluded rural charm. Stables for those who desire to own horses are now completed. Scores of bridle and hiking trails wind through the property. Barbecue facilities are provided within a grove of giant redwoods. Priced from $1,250, estates in Kent Woodlands are one-half acre and larger, allowing ample grounds for gardens and outdoor living. All utilities are included. F.H.A. approved. Sensible restrictions. No city taxes. Visit Kent Woodlands next week-end and see what it has to offer you and yours. Over Golden Gate Bridge and Highway 101. Turn left in Kentfield at Associated Oil Station.
